August Writing Prompts
Summer vacation is over. Write about what you did over your summer break.
Think about everything you did on your summer break. Pick one thing you did and write about it. Make sure you give details.
Write about one of your favorite moments from school last year. Pick one event and write about it. Make sure you add details.
What are you most excited about for this school year?
What is one thing you really want to learn about this year? Why do you want to learn about it? Make sure you give details.
Write a letter to the teacher you had last year. Tell him/her what you liked best about the school year.
Write an acrostic poem about school.
