

Essential Question: How can words lead to change?

Unit 3 Week 4

Story

Abe's Honest Words: The Life of Abraham Lincoln

Genre

Biography

Story

"A New Birth of Freedom"

Genre

Speech

Story

"Words for Change"

Genre

Biography

Comprehension Strategy

reread

Comprehension Skill

author's point of view

Vocabulary Strategy

Latin and Greek suffixes

Writing Traits

organization-strong conclusions

Grammar

linking verbs

Other Skills

suffixes, fluency: expression

Genre

biography

SPELLING/ PHONICS

plurals

clams
mints
props
arches
dresses
parents
caves
glasses
hobbies
engines
couches
arrows
enemies
babies
ranches
patches
mistakes
supplies
mosses
armies

Vocabulary

address- an official speech divided- split into parts or pieces haste- hurry; quickness in movement opposed- to have been against perish- to be destroyed; die proclamation- an official public announcement shattered- broke into pieces tension- a feeling of pressure caused by too much emotional strain or worry