

Unit 4 Week 3

Text Set 2

Drama

Key Concept

Discoveries

Essential Question:

*WHAT CAN YOU DISCOVER
WHEN YOU GIVE THINGS A SECOND LOOK?*

Anchor Text

A Window into History: The Mystery of the Cellar Window

Shared Read

"Where's Brownie"

Reading Literature

story elements: plot
character perspective

figurative language: similes and metaphors

Fluency

phrasing

Vocabulary Strategy

adages and proverbs

Grammar

pronoun-verb agreement

Mechanics and Proofreading

abbreviations

Structural Analysis

homographs

Writing

expository writing

Research

a second look

Spelling/Phonics

homographs

OL

contest
content
protest
combat
permits
rebel
present
insert
desert
subject
minute
compact
conduct
contract
refuse
conflict
research
excuse
entrance
extract
unusual
rewrap
dishonest
effect
affect

2023

Vocabulary

astounded- surprised very much; amazed concealed- put or kept out of sight; hid inquisitive- eager to know; curious interpret- to explain the meaning of something perplexed- filled with uncertainty; confused; bewildered precise- very accurate or definite; exact reconsider- to think about again suspicious- feeling or suspecting that something is wrong or cannot be trusted